Golden Wedding is Happy Occasion.

Surrounded by their children and numerous friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bishop most happily celebrated their golden wedding, Wednesday, September 27. For the first time during their fifteen years' residence in Chickasha all of their children were with them at the same time and the joyful reunion was no small part of the pleasure of their "wedding day."

In the evening they entertained their Chickasha friends between the hours of eight and eleven, receiving the felicitations of all. They were also the recipients of a host of beautiful gifts including flowers and many articles appropriately decorated in gold. From members of the family they received an electric lamp, an ivory set monogrammed in gold, and "fifty round, golden years" inside of a tiny bank.

The guests calling were met at the door by Mrs. Claud M. Powers, and Mrs. Oscar Claycomb, who introduced them to the bride and groom. Golden draperies covered the throne on which Mr. and Mrs. Bishop sat while receiving their friends and a pillow at the foot of the throne, embroidered in daisies, bore the familiar lines, "One I love, Two I love, Three I love, I say."

Receiving with the charming bridal couple were their children and grandchildren, Mr. William E. Bishop, Mrs. F. R. Lonsdale of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Bishop of Mission, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Brashner, Miss Pauline Bishop, Mr. James F. Bishop Jr., of Oklahoma City, and Miss Frances Lonsdale. Others assisting in entertaining the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames A. E. McKenzie, R. D. Welborne, C. L. Stone, T. R. Trawick, D. H. Roche and Mrs. I. H. Harness.

Two delightful vocal selections, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and "When We Are Old and Gray" were an appropriate part of the entertainment. Some Victrola numbers were also enjoyed by the guests.

Autumn flowers and foliage with golden tints beautified the room harmonizing with the color design suggested by the occasion. Golden rods and ferns were artistically interwoven in the balustrade of the stairway, and the chandelier in the hall was pleasantly shaded with autumn leaves. The other chandeliers represented pumpkin vines with the lights shining through the flower faces and unique pumpkin portieres separated the hall from both receiving rooms. In the living room a huge basket of chrysanthemums partially screened the fireplace and a candelabrum with yellow shades ornamented the mantle. Shasta daisies were also skillfully used in the decorations. A luxurious riot of rich, multi-colored autumn leaves transformed the dining room into a spot of rustic beauty. A graceful basket of the leaves was the central table decoration and smaller baskets at the corners of the table were filled with celocia, all of the handles being decorated with fluffy bows of tulle. Assisting in the dining room were Misses Rebecca Armstrong, Leta Major and Blanch Harness. The dainty refreshments consisted of ice cream served in individual pumpkin baskets and small cakes numbered in gold on the white icing with the two important dates, "1866-1916."

Orangeade was served in the library by Misses Hazel Owsley and Lida Richards under a canopy of golden ropes. A large basket filled with cat tails and ferns and tied with tulle was suspended from its top, a final touch of beauty to the elaborate decorative arrangements.

James Fred Bishop was born in Atlanta, Ind., in 1843, and Frances Virginia Houser, the girl whom he was later to wed, was born in Washington, Ohio, two years later. Their romance commenced at the beginning of the Civil war when they both lived near Tipton, Ind., and when Mr. Bishop joined the Fifty-seventh Indiana infantry, they corresponded faithfully through the years of strife. In the year following the close of the war they were united in marriage at Tipton. In 1869 they moved to Lincoln, Neb., where they lived for over thirty years, and were neighbors and intimate friends of William J. Bryan. Mr. Bishop was a stockman during his residence in Nebraska. Moving to Chickasha in 1901 they have since endeavored themselves to an ever increasing circle of friends. Kind and loving in their private life, and manifesting an unselfish public spirit for any civic cause they have indeed earned the distinction of being known as one of the city's most prominent and respected families.

Opening of Club Year.

Members of Sorosis Study Club and MacDowell Music Club will take up their club work next week with renewed vigor after a vacation of five months. Both clubs have planned interesting and comprehensive courses of study for 1916-17, and in addition to deriving intellectual benefit from their studies Chickasha's progressive club women will display their usual active interest in matters of public importance. The most important outside work done by Sorosis is that of maintaining a scholarship fund for the O. C. W. which has already been of incalculable benefit to the college and to the worthy young ladies who were helped. Four scholarships are given each year by Sorosis. The broad and unselfish ambition of MacDowell club is to raise the musical tastes and standard of the community and this they are endeavoring to do by bringing the best artists obtainable to Chickasha.

The opening session of Sorosis will be held Wednesday, October 4, and the members will then enjoy their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Elmer Terrell. Original vacation verse will be given in answer to roll call and the president will make an address. There will be no lesson until the following week.

The Sorosis year book shows programs comprising a systematic study of the Orient. Commencing with China, to the study of which five lessons are given, the course laid out includes Japan, India, Turkey, Persia and Arabia. Special lessons are devoted to classic works of fiction dealing with the countries named. The club will observe "Baby Day" on March seventh.

MacDowell Club will hold its first meeting Saturday, October 7, with Mrs. J. C. Terrell acting as hostess. Mrs. T. B. Losey will lead the lesson, an introduction to the study of Russian music, the music of that country, including Poland, having been chosen for the year's work. Mrs. Losey's lesson includes an outline of ecclesiastical music and a few early operas.

Surprise Former Classmate.

Ten of the eighth grade pupils of St. Joseph's school surprised their former classmate, Miss Alma Jackson, Wednesday evening, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday. The surprise was as complete as the party was merry and the self invited, but most welcome guests remained until a late hour. Music and games were enjoyed and lovely refreshments were served. The happy hostess was the grateful recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts. Miss Alma, who for a number of years has been a popular student at St. Joseph's school, is attending the O. C. W. this year.

Presbyterian Guild.

The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Guild was held last Tuesday afternoon at the parish house, the members occupying themselves by making a rag carpet. Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Tels acted as hostesses, serving light refreshments. Mrs. Charles Rose and Mrs. Howard Miller will be hostesses next week, and all members are urged to be present as some business matters of importance are to be brought up.

Mystery Club Organized.

The members of the Mystery Club held their initial meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Platt. As the name suggests the evening's program is a secret known only to those present. The members beside Mrs. Platt are Mrs. Edna Maddox and Misses Laura Finch, Caroline Porter, Maxie N. Woodring, Ella Jane Rouse, Irene Skaley and Carrie Ornerod.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. G. B. McCosh of Mt. Morris, Ill., arrived in Chickasha the first of the week to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Trawick. Misses

The Crown of Womanhood

"Uncared for hair cannot be beautiful. There is no part of the human makeup so revealing of the hair. It cries out: Look at me, care for me, or I will disgrace you! Treat me with consideration and I will be a glory to you."

With the above words, Lillian Russell, an unquestioned authority on feminine attractiveness, places no uncertain value on nice hair as a beauty asset. Unkempt, uncared for hair not only cannot be attractive but is actually a disgrace.

But why have ill-kept, untidy hair? By devoting a few moments regularly to brushing and intelligent application of NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, the hair may be made to yield wonderful returns in increased personal charm.

Dandruff is the direct cause of more hair trouble than anything else. The hair becomes thin, harsh, uneven and falls out in quantities. It looks dead and lifeless; there is no luster. The scalp itches.

HERPICIDE will remove the dandruff which is causing all the trouble, clean the scalp, give the hair life, snap and luxuriance. The hair stops coming out, the itching ceases almost at once and withal there is a most gratifying sense of cleanliness.

To the woman who wishes to make the most of nature's gifts by having fluffy, beautiful hair, NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is a toilet necessity. It is exquisitely perfumed and is a delightful hair dressing.

In 50c and $1.00 sizes. At drug stores and toilet goods counters everywhere. Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co.

Applications at the better Barber Shops and Hair-Dressing Parlors.

Send 10 cents for sample bottle and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. S, Detroit, Mich.

Jean and Marion McCosh, sisters of Mrs. Trawick, who spent winter before last with her, attending the O. C. W., are enrolled in the Northwestern University in Chicago this year, taking a combination art and musical course.

Mrs. J. C. Ambler and Mrs. Harry Hammerly will be hostesses at the Country Club on Tuesday afternoon of next week at a bridge and forty-two party.

Mrs. J. H. Griffin will entertain with a one o'clock luncheon complimentary to Mrs. John Light of Light, Ariz., on Wednesday of next week.

FRANK PARKINSON TO SPEAK IN CHICKASHA

It was announced today by the Republican state committee that Frank Parkinson of Lawton, Republican candidate for a member of the corporation commission would speak in Chickasha next Monday afternoon. Parkinson devoted his attention exclusively to state issues and Democrats are especially invited to hear him.—Republican County Committee.

What Mothers Say

The experience of those who have used "Mother's Friend" should merit expectant mothers' consideration at this time.

"Was the means of banishing morning sickness and nauseating conditions before conception."
Mrs. —

"Proved its great value during delivery by the absence of the severe pains occasioned by such an event."
Mrs. —

"Being an external remedy is of the greatest assistance in preparing the system for such a change."
Mrs. —

"Your druggist sells it. Write for free and interesting book on Motherhood."

Fort Worth Live Stock.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 29.—Cattle—Receipts 1900; steady; steers $6 to $7.25. Hogs—Receipts 3900; 5 cents lower; weak; bulk $9.75. Sheep—Receipts 200; nominal; lambs $9 to $9.50.

ARE YOU LOOKING OLD?

Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at forty. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—After wheat in some cases today had touched the highest prices yet this season, heavy profit taking by holders led to a decided setback. The chief bullish influence continued to be the lack of rain in Argentina. Closing prices here, however, were weak, 3-4c to 1c net lower, with December at $1.54 1-8 and May at $1.53 7-8. Corn finished 3-8c off to 1-2c up, oats at 1-8c decline to 1-4c advance, and provisions unchanged to 2-5c down.

New York Cotton.

New York, Sept. 29.—Reports of frost in the southwest caused a rally in the cotton market today, with January contracts selling up from 15.14c to 16.25c. Demand did not become active, however, and prices later eased off, with January closing at 16.15c. The general list closed steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher.
